

JASON ALLEN

Voted best male vocalist at the National Entertainment Awards, Jason Allen is fast becoming one of the finest and most talked about singers in the UK. His debut single "I Close My Eyes" reached No1 in the iTunes Jazz Chart.

Jason performs a tribute to the music of Michael Buble & the American Songbook featuring songs made famous by Frank Sinatra, Dean Martin and many more.

Previous clients include The Playboy Club London, Warner Hotel Group, The Savoy Hotel, The Dorchester Hotel, The Casino at the Empire Leicester Square and Pizza Express Jazz Clubs.

Jason is available solo with high quality backing tracks or live options from pianist through to 8 piece band.

Jason started his career in 1999 when he enrolled at the Academy Drama School, London. Since then, he has worked professionally as a singer and actor in various musical theatre productions including, A Slice of Saturday Night, Jesus Christ Superstar & Disco Inferno. He has appeared in BBCs Eastenders and Come Fly with Me.

In 2016, Jason played DC Paul Donnell in the Explosive Docu/Drama "The Investigator" on ITV and "Matthew Flinders in the Short Film "The Lost World of Joseph Banks".

Jason's other film credits include the Feature Films Uncut and Ugly Beautiful (Greenacre Films) and winner of best UK Feature at the Raindance Film Festival, Exhibit A (Bigger Pictures) which has also been nominated for 3 BIFAs (British Independent Film Awards). He has appeared in numerous short films including The Date and Pocket to name a few.

